FORWARD

During a trip in 1993 to Cimarron, New Mexico, I noticed a display case at the St. James Hotel containing an old hotel register. I inquired about the availability of the data contained therein and was told it had never been copied. The management wasn't sure that it was even complete. After several periods of discontinuance as a hotel and various owners attempting to restore the building, some of the register had no doubt been lost. But the book that remains contains the names of the guests for quite a span although, as the reader will see, there are gaps of many years.

The original register book is retained by the St. James Hotel. This is an effort by the Albuquerque Genealogy Club to preserve this old document from possible extinction by copying and indexing it. We have attempted to decipher all the names we could, and hope that the information may prove valuable to researchers. There were also three account ledgers for open accounts run at the hotel and these will be published in the next few months. They are quite extensive covering some 200 pages in each volume.

My thanks to Mr. Greg Champion, owner of the St. James Hotel, and Mr. Dave Kenneke, the Marketing Director, for their assistance in copying the old registers; to Mr. Edward Sitzberger, previous owner, for his many hours in handling and copying of these old valuable and fragile documents; to Mrs. Carolyn Reese of the Albuquerque Public Library for the many hours in proofreading the names and her aid in deciphering them.

Note: The town of Tipton was located two miles north of Watrous and named for an early settler there. The Post office was called Tiptonville from 1876 to 1898. La Junta was the confluence of the Sapello and Mora rivers and later became Watrous - two distinctly separate communities. See also "The New Mexico Story, Vol. VI (Seven Rivers and Zia)" by Father Stanley Crotchiola.

Happy Hunting!
